D Change of designated beneficiary - use this section to name the designated beneficiaries of your CAAT Pension Plan pre-retirement death benefit

Please note: This beneficiary designation revokes any prior beneficiary designations you may have submitted to the CAAT Pension Plan. An individual acting on behalf of a member cannot change a beneficiary designation, only the member has that authority.

The CAAT Pension Plan pays a pre-retirement death benefit if you die before you retire. If you have an eligible spouse on the date of your death, they are the sole recipient of the pre-retirement death benefit. Your designated beneficiaries can only receive the pre-retirement death benefit if you do not have an eligible spouse on the date of your death. You should name as your designated beneficiaries the person or persons who you would like to receive the pre-retirement death benefit in the event that you do not have an eligible spouse on the date of your death.

If you do not have an eligible spouse on the date of your death and have not named any designated beneficiaries, the pre-retirement death benefit will be paid to your estate. Nevertheless, if you reported to work in Ontario or Nova Scotia when you terminated employment with your CAAT Participating Employer, you do not have an eligible spouse, but have eligible children (see CAAT survivor benefits webpage for applicable definition of child) on the date of your death, they receive a children’s pension and the pre-retirement death benefit paid to your designated beneficiaries or estate will be correspondingly reduced.

The CAAT Pension Plan considers your spouse to be the eligible spouse for the pre-retirement death benefit if:

- Your spouse meets the definition based on your jurisdiction of employment (see last page of this document for applicable definition of spouse)
- Your spouse has not waived pre-retirement death benefits.

Refer to the CAAT Plan’s website for more details on the pre-retirement death benefit, eligible spouse, eligible child(ren), and waiver.

The total % Share must add up to exactly 100%.

If you want to name more than 4 beneficiaries, please attach a separate form.
